

Which formula operands move when scale changes?

